IDENTITIES Journal for Jewish Culture & Identity

Call for Articles

IDENTITIES is a new multi-disciplinary academic journal published by The Van Leer Jerusalem Institute whose purpose is to stimulate public and academic discussion of contemporary Jewish culture and identity in Israel and the Diaspora. The journal will showcase research studies on streams and diverse groups within Jewish society and will provide insights on emergent trends. Issues in Jewish thought and culture will be addressed here from the manifold perspectives of the Humanities and Social Sciences.

The journal will be published twice a year in Hebrew. The inaugural issue will appear in 2010.
