

The Van Leer Jerusalem Institute and The Vidal Sassoon International Center for the Study of Antisemitism Invite you to a Colloquium on

Antisemitism and Racism in Latin America

Mothers and children attending Infant Hygiene Clinic at Veracruz health unit, 1929, Courtesy of the Rockefeller Archive Center

Monday, January 15, 2018, 18:30 at the Van Leer Jerusalem Institute

Chair: Manuela Consonni, Director, The Vidal Sassoon International Center for the Study of Antisemitism

Michel Gherman, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro
The Case of Antisemitism in Left-Wing Brazilian Movements

Gustavo Guzmán Castro, Ph.D. student, Tel Aviv University
Between Antisemitism and Philosemitism: The Right-Wing Attitudes toward Jews in Chile, 1932-1990

Adrián Krupnik, Ph.D. student, Tel Aviv University
Antisemitism as a Disputed Concept in Contemporary Argentinian Society

Martina L. Weisz, Research Fellow, The Vidal Sassoon International Center for the Study of Antisemitism Jews, Latin America and the Global Structures of Coloniality

Respondent: Raanan Rein, Vice-President, Tel Aviv University

Admission is Free

The Van Leer Jerusalem Institute, 43 Jabotinsky St., Jerusalem Tel. 02-5605222, www.vanleer.org.il

Parking is not available at the Institute. Metered parking is available on the neighboring streets. Photographs taken at the event will be posted on the Institute's website and on social networks.