Projects

Emily Bilski:

Emily Bilski and Meital Manor, exhibition curators, "Across the Sea."
At A Studio of her Own, from 02/04/2025 – 31/07/2025.

The exhibition Across the Sea presents works by ten artists who made Aliya to Israel from North America, and explores themes of immigration, integration, and acculturation. These artists brought with them American cultural influences and the experiences of being Jewish in the Diaspora, while viewing Israeli institutions, society, culture, and the physical landscape with fresh eyes, insights that are revealed in their art. Further information is available in English and Hebrew.

Sandra Fine:

Sandra Fine, managing editor of Kaleidoscope Magazine. Issue 2 appeared on April 1, 2025.

Kaleidoscope is a multidisciplinary periodical that seeks to inform and encourage engagement among readers of all ages on a wide range of topics of Jewish and international interest. The magazine reflects an open, inclusive and pluralistic approach, rooted in the ethos of the Habonim youth movement.

Donna Shalev:

Athletic References in Arabic Translations of Galen and Aristotle: A Textual Basis for the Study of Cultural Transfer. (3 Year ISF funded project)

‘Mechanics of Canon Formation and the Transmission of Knowledge from Graeco-Roman Antiquity’ (a doctoral network funded by Horizon MSCA 2022-Marie Curie).

With Asaf Roth, reading group on passages from Plato's Republic

With Dr. Orly Lewis and Dr. Hannalies Koloska and their research teams (Atlomy <https://www.atlomy.com> and Visionis <https://visionis.huji.ac.il>, respectively), and the two Marie Curie doctoral students: reading group on theories of vision in Greek and Arabic versions of Galen On the Usefulness of Parts Book X (on the anatomy and functions of the eye), and related sources.
